Dues for Junior members shall not exceed $15 per year. One sponsor is required; sponsor must be a Regular Member of the Club and may reside in the same household with the proposed junior member they are sponsoring.

While membership is to be unrestricted as to residence, the club's primary purpose is to be representative of the breeders and exhibitors in its immediate area.

Section 2. Dues. Membership dues shall be $25 per year for Regular Members and Associate Members, $10 per year for Junior Members, payable on or before the first day of January of each year. No member may vote whose dues are not paid for the current year. During the month of December, the Treasurer or Membership Chairman shall send to each member a statement of dues for the ensuing year. New applicants applying for membership during the last quarter of a calendar year shall pay dues at ½ the normal rate for the remainder of the year in which they are applying, and shall thereafter renew their membership in January at the normal annual rate.

Section 3. Election to Membership. Each applicant for membership shall apply on a form as approved by the board of directors and which shall provide that the applicant agrees to abide by the constitution and bylaws and the rules of The American Kennel Club. The application shall state the name, address, and occupation of the applicant and it shall carry the endorsement of two Regular Members in good standing for Regular Membership; and one Regular Member in good standing for Associate Membership. Accompanying the application, the prospective member shall submit dues payment for the current year.

All applications are to be filed with the Membership Committee Chair for verification of information. After said verification, the application will be forwarded to the Board of Directors for membership approval. The Membership Committee Chair shall notify new members of their election to membership and keep a roll of the members of the club with their addresses and contact information.

Applicants for membership who have been denied membership by the club may reapply after 12 months.

Section 4. Termination of Membership. Memberships may be terminated:

- (a) by resignation. Any member in good standing may resign from the club upon written notice to the Secretary, but no member may resign when in debt to the club. Obligations other than dues are considered a debt to the club and must be paid in full prior to resignation.
- (b) by lapsing. A membership will be considered as lapsed and automatically terminated if such member's dues remain unpaid 30 days after the first day of the fiscal year (January 1st); however, the board may grant an additional 90 days of grace to such delinquent members in meritorious cases. In no case may a person be entitled to vote at any club meeting whose dues are unpaid as of the date of that meeting.
- (c) by expulsion. A membership may be terminated by expulsion as provided in Article VI of these bylaws.

ARTICLE II Meetings and Voting

Section 1. Club Meetings. Meetings of the club shall be held at least six times annually within the Greater Phoenix, Arizona area at such hour and place as may be designated by the board of directors. Written notice of each such meeting shall be mailed or sent electronically by the Secretary to all Club members at least 10 days prior to the date of the meeting. The quorum for such meetings shall be 15 percent of the members in good standing. All club notices for Annual Meetings or meetings wherein Bylaw Amendments are to be voted on must be sent via the US Postal Service. *Electronic notices via e-mail correspondence will constitute proper notice for all meetings except the Annual Meeting or meetings wherein Bylaw Amendments are to be voted on. A club member may upon written request opt out of electronic notices

Section 2. Special Club Meetings. Special club meetings may be called by the President, or by a majority vote of the members of the board who are present and voting at any regular or special meeting of the board; and shall be called by the Secretary upon receipt of a petition signed by five members of the club who are in good standing. Such special meetings shall be held within the Greater Phoenix, Arizona area at such place, date and hour as may be designated by the person or persons authorized herein to call such meetings. Written notice of such a meeting shall be mailed or sent electronically by the Secretary at least five days and not more than 15 days prior to the date of the meeting, and said notice shall state the purpose of the meeting, and no other club business may be transacted thereat. The quorum for such a meeting shall be 15 percent of the members in good standing.

Section 3. Board Meetings. Meetings of the board of directors shall be held at least six times annually within the Greater Phoenix, Arizona area at such hour and place as may be designated by the board. Written notice of each such meeting shall be mailed or sent electronically by the Secretary to each board member at least five days prior to the date of the meeting. The five-day notice requirement may be waived by unanimous board consent in writing or via e-mail. The quorum for such a meeting shall be a majority of the board.

Section 4. Special Board Meetings. Special meetings of the board may be called by the President; and shall be called by the Secretary upon receipt of a written request signed by at least three members of the board. Such special meetings shall be held within the Greater Phoenix, Arizona area at such place, date, and hour as may be designated by the person authorized herein to call such meeting. Written notice of such meeting shall be mailed or sent electronically by the Secretary at least five days and not more than 10 days prior to the state of the meeting. Any such notice shall state the purpose of the meeting and no other business shall be transacted thereat. The five-day notice requirement may be waived by unanimous board consent in writing or via e-mail. The quorum for such a meeting shall be a majority of the board.

Section 5. Voting. Each Regular Member in good standing whose dues are paid for the current year shall be entitled to one vote at any meeting of the club at which he/she is present. Proxy voting will not be permitted at any club meeting or election.

ARTICLE III Directors and Officers

Section 1. Board of Directors. The Board shall be comprised of the officers and at least three (3) other persons. The number of additional directors shall be determined by the Board of Directors. The immediate past president will serve as a director, unless he/she is otherwise serving as an officer of the club. All of whom shall be members in good standing and all of whom shall be elected for one-year terms at the club's annual meeting as provided in Article IV (with the exception of the immediate past-president, whose service as a director is automatic), and shall serve until their successors are elected. General management of the club's affairs shall be entrusted to the board of directors.

Section 2. Officers. The club's officers, consisting of the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, shall serve in their respective capacities both with regard to the club and its meetings and the board and its meetings.

- (a) The President shall preside at all meetings of the club and of the board, and shall have the duties and powers normally appurtenant to the office of President in addition to those particularly specified in these bylaws.
- (b) The Vice President shall have the duties and exercise the powers of the President in the case of the President's death, absence or incapacity. The Vice President shall also serve as the Educational Director.
- (c) The Secretary shall keep a record of all meetings of the club and of the board and of all matters of which a record shall be ordered by the club; have charge of the correspondence, notify members of meetings, notify officers and directors of their election to office, and carry out such other duties as are prescribed by these bylaws.
- (d) The Treasurer shall collect and receive all moneys due or belonging to the club. Moneys shall be deposited in a bank designated by the board, in the name of the club. The books shall at all times be open to the inspection by the board and a report shall be given at every meeting on the condition of the club's finances and every item of receipt or payment not before reported; and at the annual meeting an accounting shall be rendered of all moneys received and expended during the previous fiscal year. The Treasurer shall be bonded in such amount as the board of directors shall determine.

Section 3. Vacancies. Any vacancies occurring on the board or among the offices during the year shall be filled until the next annual election by a majority vote of all the then members of the board at its first regular meeting following the creation of such vacancy, or at a special board meeting called for that purpose; except that a vacancy in the office of President shall be filled automatically by the Vice President and the resulting vacancy in the office of Vice President shall be filled by the board.

ARTICLE IV

The Club Year, Annual Meeting, Elections

Section 1. Club Year. The club's fiscal year shall begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December.

The club's official year shall begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December of each year.

Section 2. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting shall be held in the month of November, at which officers and directors, for the ensuing year shall be elected by secret ballot from among those nominated in accordance with Section 4 of this Article. In the event the slate presented by the Nominating Committee remain uncontested, a motion may be made to accept the slate and the same may be elected by a general vote rather than by secret ballot. They shall take office upon the first (1st) day of January in the ensuing year and each retiring officer shall turn over to his successor in office all properties and records relating to that office prior to January 1st of the ensuing year after the election.

Section 3. Elections. The nominated candidate receiving the greatest number of votes for each office shall be declared elected. The nominated candidates for the other available positions on the board who receive the greatest number of votes for such positions shall be declared elected

Section 4. Nominations. No person may be a candidate in a club election who has not been properly nominated and who has not attended at least 50% of all club meetings during the previous 12 months. During the month of August, the board shall select a Nominating Committee consisting of three members and two alternates, not more than one of whom may be a member of the board. The Secretary shall immediately notify the committeemen and alternates of their selection. The board shall name a chairman for the committee and it shall be such person's duty to call a committee meeting, which shall be held on or before September 5th.

- (a) The committee shall nominate one candidate for each office and the positions on the board and, after securing the consent of each person so nominated, shall immediately report their nominations to the Secretary in writing.
- (b) Upon receipt of the Nominating Committee's report, the Secretary shall, at least two weeks before the October meeting, notify each member in writing of the candidates so nominated.
- (c) Additional nominations may be made at the October meeting by any member in attendance, provided that the person so nominated does not decline when their name is proposed, and provided further that if the proposed candidate is not in attendance at this meeting, the proposer shall present to the Secretary a written statement from the proposed candidate signifying willingness to be a candidate. No person may be a candidate for more than one position.
- (d) Nominations cannot be made at the annual meeting or in any manner other than as provided in this Section.

ARTICLE V Committees

Section 1. The board may each year appoint standing committees to advance the work of the club in such matters as dog shows, obedience trials, trophies, prizes, membership, and other fields which may well be served by committees. Such committees shall always be subject to the final authority of the board. Special committees may also be appointed by the board to aid it on particular projects.

Section 2. Any committee appointment may be terminated by a majority vote of the full membership of the board upon written notice to the appointee; and the board may appoint successors to those persons whose services have been terminated.

ARTICLE VI

Discipline

Section 1. American Kennel Club Suspension. Any member who is suspended from the privileges of The American Kennel Club automatically shall be suspended from the privileges of this club for a like period.

Section 2. Charges. An individual member may prefer charges against another individual member for alleged misconduct prejudicial to the best interests of the club. Written charges with specifications must be filed in duplicate with the Secretary together with a deposit of $150, which shall be forfeited if such charges are not sustained by the board following a hearing. The Secretary shall promptly send a copy of the charges to each member of the board or present them at a board meeting, and the board shall first consider whether the actions alleged in the charges, if proven, might constitute conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the club. If the board considers that the charges do not allege conduct which would be prejudicial to the best interests of the club, it may refuse to entertain jurisdiction. If the board entertains jurisdiction of the charges, it shall fix a date for a hearing by the board not less than three weeks nor more than six weeks thereafter. The Secretary shall promptly send one copy of the charges and the specifications to the accused member by registered mail together with a notice of the hearing and an assurance that the defendant may personally appear in his own defense and bring witnesses if he wishes.

Section 3. Board Hearing. The board shall have complete authority to decide whether counsel may attend the hearing, but both complainant and defendant shall be treated uniformly in that regard. Should the charges be sustained after hearing all the evidence and testimony presented by complainant and defendant, the board may by a majority vote of those present reprimand or suspend the defendant from all privileges of the club for not more than six months from the date of the hearing. And, if it deems that punishment insufficient, it may also recommend to the membership that the penalty be expulsion. In such case, the suspension shall not restrict the defendant's right to appear before his fellow members at the ensuing club meeting which considers the board's recommendation. Immediately after the board has reached a decision, its finding shall be put in written form and filed with the Secretary. The Secretary, in turn, shall notify each of the parties of the board's decision and penalty, if any. If disciplinary charges are brought and upheld against an Officer or Board of Director of this Club, such Officer or Board of Director shall immediately be removed from office and the vacant position shall be filled as provided for in Article III, Section 3).

Section 4. Expulsion. Expulsion of a member from the club may be accomplished only at a meeting of the club following a board hearing and upon the board's recommendation as provided in Section 3 of this Article. Such proceedings may occur at a regular or special meeting of the club to be held within 60 days but not earlier than 30 days after the date of the board's recommendation of expulsion. The defendant shall have the privilege of appearing in his own behalf, though no evidence shall be taken at this meeting. The President shall read the charges and the board's finding and recommendation, and shall invite the defendant, if present, to speak in his own behalf if he wishes. The members shall then vote by secret ballot on the proposed expulsion. A 2/3 vote of those present and voting at the meeting shall be necessary for expulsion. If expulsion is not so voted, the board's suspension shall stand.

ARTICLE VII Amendments

Section 1. Amendments to the constitution and bylaws may be proposed by the board of directors or by written petition addressed to the Secretary signed by 20 percent of the membership in good standing. Amendments proposed by such petition shall be promptly considered by the board of directors and must be submitted to the members with recommendations of the board by the Secretary for a vote within three months of the date when the petition was received by the Secretary.

Section 2. The constitution and bylaws may be amended by a 2/3 secret vote of the members present and voting at any regular or special meeting called for the purpose, provided the proposed amendments have been included in the notice of the meeting and mailed to each member at least two weeks prior to the date of the meeting.

ARTICLE VIII Dissolution

Section 1. The club may be dissolved at any time by the written consent of not less than 2/3 of the members in good standing. In the event of the dissolution of the club other than for purposes of reorganization whether voluntary or involuntary or by operation of law, none of the property of the club nor any proceeds thereof nor any assets of the club shall be distributed to any members of the club, but after payment of the debts of the club its property and assets shall be given to a charitable organization for the benefit of dogs selected by the board of directors.

ARTICLE IX Order of Business

Section 1. At meetings of the club, the order of business, so far as the character and nature of the meeting may permit, shall be as follows:

- Roll Call
- Minutes of last meeting
- Report of President
- Report of Secretary

Report of Treasurer
Reports of committees
Election of officers and board (at annual meeting)
Election of new members
Unfinished business
New business
Adjournment

Section 2. At meetings of the board, the order of business, unless otherwise directed by majority vote of those present, shall be as follows:

Reading of minutes of last meeting
Report of Secretary
Report of Treasurer
Reports of committees
Unfinished business
New business
Adjournment

ARTICLE X Parliamentary Authority

Section 1. The rules contained in the current edition of “Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised,” shall govern the club in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws and any other special rules of order the club may adopt.

ADOPTED this 2nd day of October, 2004.

Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club of Central Arizona

GLOSSARY

Member in good standing – An individual who is not suspended by The American Kennel Club or their Club and whose dues for the year are already paid.

Vote - a vote may only be cast by a member holding voting privileges, and any references to voting herein shall be construed to mean voting by a member who holds voting privileges.

Uppermost limits for dues – In order to avoid frequent bylaw amendment, an uppermost limit (i.e., Dues shall not exceed $_____) should be included for each type of membership, in addition to when and by whom the dues are set each year.

Reprimand – A written warning to a member after charges have been filed in accordance with the bylaws, and it is determined that the member's conduct was not severe enough to warrant a suspension or a recommendation for expulsion.

Notices – All club notices must be sent via the US Postal Service or transmitted electronically.

Delegate Duties – For AKC member clubs only, the general duties of the Delegate must be listed.

Votes on Bylaw Amendments – After amendments are voted upon, the club must provide AKC with the number of members in good standing as well as the date of the vote, and the number who voted for and against. A copy of the revised document must be submitted to AKC as soon as it is printed.
