

CAVALIER CHATTER

Spring/Summer 2011

“All The News That’s Fit To Bark About!”

Here we are, another summer arriving in Arizona. Some of us use this time to visit friends and family in cooler places, others stay indoors as much as possible. We all know about our summer weather but unless someone's experienced the swelter that is Arizona in July most cannot imagine how HOT it really is!

I hope you stay cool and comfortable during the months to come. Meanwhile, let's enjoy the beautiful cool mornings and not-too-hot afternoons of Springtime!

Take care to keep your cavalier comfortable as well. Make sure you change your dog's water every day and that the water bowl stays full.

Don't leave your cavalier outside unattended or any longer than you would stay outside.

Walks should be taken in the early morning or late evening.

Signs Of Heat Exhaustion In Dogs

1. If your dog is staggering around like a drunk.
2. Does your dog seem weak but still restless?
3. His panting is heavier than normal and might have a slight rasping sound to it.
4. Does he seem extremely anxious with a delirious expression on his face?
5. Check his temperature for a fever higher than 104°F.

If your cavalier has recently received his/her Therapy or Obedience Title please let us know so you can have a brag in our next newsletter!

Good Dog

"Crash"

Crash has received his Delta Society Therapy Dog Certification! Wow, what pleasure this little fellow will bring to those in need. Congratulations Crash, we all love you!

Not to be outdone, Crash's brother Rustin is also a new Therapy Dog! Crash and Rustin are both owned by club member and webmaster Jamie McDevitt. As you can see, Rustin is a little clown in this photo, or is he a little walrus?

Meet Our New Webmaster!
Jamie McDevitt is our new Webmaster. Please make a note to send all web related information to Jamie. She has set up a special email address for us, CavalierWeb@cox.net. Your information needs to get to Jamie so that she can broadcast it to the world! Jamie is also going to introduce a memorial page for our cavaliers who have gone to the rainbow bridge.

We Are So Proud Of Our Cavaliers!

GCH. Mayfield Prince Of Hearts aka Andy earned his GCH title as handled by Curtiss Smith with Judge Joe Tacker at the Kachina KC portion of the Turquoise Cluster on Saturday 4/9/11. His five littermates are all AKC champion's or record and Andy is now the fourth member of that litter to be awarded the GCH title. His dam CH "Darby" Turretbank Pearl Tiara will be awarded her ROM at this year's ACKCSC National Banquet and his sire GCH AKC/USA "Ace" Mayfield Ace of Hearts needs but one more finished CH to also obtain his ROM designation. This is quite an honor for Andy and his owners, Dick and Peggy Preston. Dick is a member of our Board of Directors. Congratulations to the Winning Edge Cavaliers!
